Ken Schweitzer

Thank you for visiting the Financial Insurance Corporation (FICOR) website.

FICOR has been in the business of protecting the assets of our client institutions since 1991, and has experienced solid growth by adhering to our core principals. We value each and every relationship and commit to treating every customer, regardless of size, with unquestioned integrity, and superior service.

FICOR is not a large indifferent corporation that offers a myriad of products, but provides a "boutique" approach that is constantly evolving and being enhanced with your suggestions on improvement.

Our commitment to Customer Service is second to none as evidenced by our state of the art insurance center and our continual investment in new technology. I am extremely confident in our ability to deliver a custom designed program for your institution that will surpass your expectations. I think that the true philosophy of FICOR can be best summed up in our Mission Statement:

Our mission at FICOR is to provide lending institutions collateral protection products and services using innovative technology, proactive thinking and unparalleled customer service.

All of us at FICOR look forward to the opportunity to show you how we can become your most valued business partner.

“
During the 13 years of service to our members we have always felt that FICOR had our credit union's best interest in mind.

The entire staff at FICOR is always very helpful and professional in dealing with our staff or our members.

Since our conversion to the FICOR program in September, 1996, the time spent by staff on collateral protection insurance administration has decreased dramatically. The time savings in not having to file insurance notifications in the member file provides the greatest benefit. In addition, the software used to track incoming declarations and cancellations is user friendly and has greatly aided in the reduction of time spent on collateral protection insurance, a feature our prior insurance carrier was not willing to provide.
